Barry Hill

Apart from being a qualified accountant Barry has spent most of his working life as a Finance Director with good overseas experience. Barry has a very rounded picture of most of the difficulties business life can throw at a SME. In more recent years Barry has been giving business advice to SMEs and has assisted more than one in overcoming financial obstacles and, in doing this, mentored and trained the management in financial measurement and awareness.

Chris Scanlon

Chris is a graduate chartered accountant with 20 years experience in blue chip companies and the last five years with small high growth companies. He is able to use his financial background to help businesses get to grips with the challenges and opportunities ahead of them. With significant experience of fund raising as well as acquisitions, joint ventures and turnarounds, he also has extensive experience of IT systems development and implementation.

Stephen Hill

Stephen has a long history of helping businesses grow. He holds a Masters degree in Marketing and is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Marketing. He has lived and worked in UK, US and continental Europe. Stephen can help you raise more finance or make the money in your business go further.

Richard Terhorst

With 20 years experience, Richard has been involved in company turn rounds, start-ups, structuring, corporate planning strategy and in negotiations/mediations in buy/sell, shareholders agreements etc. Negotiations with banks and the preparation of applications often have led to increased funding. Richard has held and still holds various directorships, either as a non-exec director or as an external finance director. Through his then accounting practice, year-end accounts as well as the more important management accounts were prepared and analysed where required.
